Thursday, July 30th, 2020 — 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Wednesday, August 5th, 2020 — 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Limit: The registration limit will be 25 participants for each session.

Deadline: The deadline for registration is seven days prior to the event.

The purpose of these online Zoom-based Introduction to Stewarding workshops is to bring new stewards to understand the basics of their work and role within their union.

This three-hour workshop will give new stewards an introduction to the following topics:

- The Duty of Fair Representation, under which stewards and the unions operate
- What are the roles of stewards in general?
- The six W's/getting the facts
- Basic grievance writing

Because this is a shortened version of the Introduction to Stewarding workshop offered by CUPE Education Branch, it cannot be used as a prerequisite for participation and attendance in workshops from the Steward Learning Series. Participants will not receive a certificate of completion for CUPE's Introduction to Stewarding.

Materials will be sent to your home address - please provide your home mailing address when registering. Please register as early as possible to ensure receipt of materials.

Please have a copy of your collective agreement available for reference.

NOTE: Registrants will be emailed a link to the "Zoom" meeting the day before the webinar to the email provided at registration.
